Wirral accountants are chosen by their peers in the UK's Accounting Firm of the Year Awards

On 7 October at the National Motorcycle Museum in Birmingham, in front of 349 fellow accountants from across the country, Wirral based Woods Squared Limited were named as the 2008/9 UK Accounting Firm of The Year runners up.

The Award, sponsored by AVN, is the only one of its kind where the winners are chosen by a panel of fellow accountants. Explaining their success, AVN's Chairman Steve Pipe said:

“Woods Squared Limited are blazing a trail for other accountants to follow. Even in the face of the recession their proactive approach is helping their clients to grow, to create jobs and to become more successful. And as a result they are redefining what businesses should expect from their accountants.”

Immediately after their Award success director of Woods Squared Limited, Alan Woods said:

“We are delighted to have been recognised by other accountants as being one of the most proactive accountancy firms in the UK. We believe that the service we offer creates genuine benefit to our clients both in terms of our help in growing their business and in saving them tax but don't just take our word for it view our video testimonials now at www.woods-squared.co.uk.”
