

Business leaders shine at WiN awards

Wirral's business community came together this week to celebrate the Borough's first ever WiN business awards at a glittering ceremony held on the grounds of Birkenhead school.

Key industry figures and businesses were recognised at the black tie evening, which saw over 300 WiN members and friends of the organisation celebrate commerce and industry in Wirral.

Ten category winners were announced, spanning a range of sectors, markets and industry disciplines. The Contact Company's Asif Hamid scooped a double, being named both Business Person of the Year as well as taking home the overall Think Big Award, a Wirral Council sponsored accolade. Creative design agency, ICE, also took home two awards whilst Hankinsons were named Business of the Year. Other winners included:

- Wood Squared - Business Start
- Ice - SME
- Hankinson - Business of the Year
- Corporate Social Responsibility - Croda
- Environmental - Bagnall and Morris
- Innovative Company - WTP Technics
- International Company - AEV

